

Largest number of perinatologists and neonatologists in Suffolk County

Level 4
Regional Perinatal Center
Highest designation
in NYS

Level 3
Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU)
Highest designation
in NYS

★ 1 of 2 All-Private Room NICUs in NYS

Most Popular Baby Name

1980 Michael
2014 Noah

Jennifer
Emma

1 of 2 hospitals in NYS with a March of Dimes Family Support Specialist

Over 200 maternal transports per year

The largest midwifery program in Suffolk County

70+

Doctors and Midwives throughout Suffolk County

BY THE NUMBERS

10

Private Birthing Rooms

42

Private Neonatal Intensive Care Rooms

3

Designated Obstetric ORs

12

Private Antepartum Rooms

36

Private Mother-Baby Rooms

5

Designated Obstetric ER Rooms

27

Record Number of Births in One Day

11 Average Number of Births per day

0 Elective Deliveries prior to 39 weeks Gestation

We support vaginal birth after a c-section with a success rate of 85%

Rather than a nursery, babies stay with mom in her room – a space for bonding and one-on-one support from our baby care experts.

MILESTONES

- 2015 Year of 100,000th Delivery
- 2014 Year of the Most Births 4,035
- 2011 New Labor and Delivery Suite
- 2008 Women & Infants Center Opens
- 1980 First Delivery

Stony Brook Delivers