What happens when world-class surgeons share one mission?

THEY DELIVER THE MOST ADVANCED HEART CARE ON LONG ISLAND. At Stony Brook University Heart Institute, we're bringing together the brightest minds in cardiothoracic surgery. We are pleased to announce two leaders in cardiothoracic surgery with joint appointments from Mount Sinai Health System: Henry Tannous, MD, and Joanna Chikwe, MD, our new Chief of Cardiothoracic Surgery. With state-of-the-art expertise in valve repair and replacement, mechanical heart pumps and coronary revascularization, our top priority is achieving outstanding patient outcomes. Together we will continue to innovate cardiac care on Long Island and beyond.
