

37 pediatric specialties.

Cutting-edge research.

A lounge just for teens.

THE NEW STONY BROOK CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL IS NOW OPEN. With a room reserved for high school-age patients, where they can chill out, text up a storm or make new friends. Expert doctors, ready to take on both common and not-so-common illnesses. Ongoing exploration for new and better ways to treat — and cure — childhood diseases. It's a facility filled with advancements, purposely designed to deliver the very best in pediatric care. As Long Island's only children's teaching hospital, we offer unmatched capabilities to handle nearly any type of medical condition affecting kids. We're new. We're world-class. And we're here for you.
