NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Purpose of this notice: To describe how your medical information is used, whom it is disclosed to and how you gain access to it.

Stony Brook Community Medical as a healthcare provider is permitted by law to collect, use and disclose your "protected health information" or medical record for the purpose of treatment, payment, internal business operations or as required by law for reporting purposes.

You have certain rights including access to your information and some control over who has access to your information.

Stony Brook Community Medical, PC agrees to abide by the terms of this notice but reserves the right to change the terms at any time. Should we do so, we will notify you in writing.

Use and Disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI): When you sign a consent form to be treated, your protected health information is used to treat you, to bill you or your insurance company for your care and to make decisions on how to provide healthcare services for you, your family and the community we take care of. Your physician, office staff and others outside of Stony Brook Community Medical i.e. your insurer are allowed access to this information.

Some examples of uses and disclosures of your protected health information are for:

- Treatment by your doctor
- Law enforcement
- Workers compensation
- Appointment reminders
- Payment for your treatment by you or your insurance
- Reporting adverse events of medication or medical devices to the FDA
- Reporting health risks
- Response to legal proceedings
- Organ or tissue donation
- Coroners, funeral directors
- Stony Brook Community Medical to determine if we meet the needs of our patients

Any other uses and disclosures not specified require an authorization, including for marketing purposes and disclosures that constitutes the sale of PHI.

Patient Rights:

A. You have the right to inspect and to obtain a copy of your protected health information for as long as the group maintains your record.
   *We are permitted by NYS law to charge you a fee of 75 cents per page
B. You have the right to restrict or to limit the use of your protected health information that we use for treatment, payment or operations.
   *Stony Brook Community Medical reserves the right to deny you treatment should you restrict the use of your protected health information for treatment, payment or operations, unless the requested restriction relates to disclosures to a health plan and the Protected Health Information relates to a health care service or item which you have paid for in full and out of pocket.
C. You can restrict the release of your health information to family or friends unless they have your written or verbal permission.
D. You have the right to request an accounting of disclosures made of your health information.
   *Your request must be submitted in writing, specifying dates and time periods as far back as six years from today, as long as the events in question happened after April 12, 2003.
E. You have the right to amend your protected health information.
   *To amend your health information, your request must be given in writing along with a reason for doing so. Your request can be denied if the information originated outside Stony Brook Community Medical, PC.
F. You have the right to request confidential communications as long as it is done in writing
   *For example, you can specify that we only contact you at work, at home or by mail, etc.
G. You have the right to receive notifications whenever a breach of your unsecured PHI occurs.

If you feel your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint, which will be forwarded to our Compliance Officer.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of
Stony Brook Community Medical's Privacy Practices

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that I have received a copy of Stony Brook Community Medical's Notice of Privacy Practices. Should I have any questions about the policy, I will discuss them with my Physician or the group's Compliance Officer.

GUARANTEE OF PAYMENT

Many insurance companies, including managed care organizations, require prior written authorization for treatment and follow-up visits. It is your responsibility as a patient to obtain all necessary authorizations from your insurance company prior to receiving medical services. If you have not received prior approval for the service or authorization has been denied, you are fully responsible for all charges if your insurance company does not agree to pay. In addition, you will be responsible for all deductibles, co-insurance, co-payments, any service that is not covered by your insurance plan, and any service that your insurance company has determined not to be "medically necessary".

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

I have read and understand this information. I understand that my insurance company may deny coverage and request that Stony Brook Orthopaedic Associates perform this medical service anyway. I agree to be personally and fully responsible for all charges. I understand that the provider named above is relying on this promise and is rendering services without requiring payment at the time of service based on such reliance.
